

RCI and Scarell announce strategic partnership to drive innovation and business development.

Paris, 25th of October 2023 - RCI, a company dedicated to the growth of technology businesses, is pleased to announce its strategic partnership with Scarell, a renowned company specializing in software solutions for distributed control and monitoring of complex systems. This collaboration marks a significant milestone in RCI's ongoing commitment to supporting innovative companies.

RCI has always been focused on developing technology companies and creating value in close collaboration with their management teams. This alliance with Scarell is a perfect example of RCI's vision to actively collaborate with small and medium-sized enterprises to invest in their long-term success.

Scarell has built a strong reputation by providing cutting-edge software solutions to leading laboratories specialized in ultrashort-pulse lasers. Their expertise in data acquisition and control of complex systems has allowed Scarell to stand out in the technology industry. By joining forces, RCI and Scarell aim to further expand Scarell's impact in this rapidly growing sector and other.

This long-term partnership between RCI and Scarell is built on a shared vision of collaboration, strategic investment, and value creation. RCI is committed to providing Scarell with the capital, talent, and leadership necessary to foster its growth and development.

"We are thrilled to partner with Scarell, a technology company that has proven itself in such a demanding field as ultrafast lasers," said Vincent Riboulet, Managing Director at RCI. "We firmly believe in their potential and are determined to work closely together to achieve new steps of innovation and success."

Scarell shares this vision for the future and sees RCI as the ideal partner to realize its ambitions. "Our collaboration with RCI strengthens our commitment to opening new territories," said Jean François Mullet, CEO at Scarell. "We look forward to leveraging their expertise and support to continue developing software solutions and serving our customers with excellence."

This partnership between RCI and Scarell demonstrates both companies' commitment to technological innovation, growth, and long-term value creation. Together, they are determined to develop new solutions and strengthen their position in the industry.

About RCI:

RCI is a company dedicated to the development of technology businesses by closely collaborating with their management teams. They provide capital, talent, and leadership to foster long-term growth and success.

About Scarell:

Scarell is a company specializing in software solutions for distributed control and monitoring of complex systems. Their solutions are widely used in advanced industries and research centers and are recognized for their excellence.