

Additional California & Virginia Privacy Disclosures

Effective as of January 1, 2023

If you are a California or Virginia resident, the processing of certain personal data about you may be subject to the California Consumer Privacy Act (“CCPA”), as amended by the California Privacy Rights Act or “CPRA”, or Virginia Consumer Data Protection Act (“VCDPA”). The CCPA, CPRA and VCDPA gives you certain rights with respect to the processing of your personal data.

This supplement provides additional privacy disclosures and informs you of your additional rights as a California or Virginia resident, and should be read in conjunction with our Privacy Policy.

Personal Information Collected and Processed

Section “PERSONAL INFORMATION” of our Privacy Policy sets forth the categories of personal information that NameBlock collects and processes about you and the sources from which the information may be obtained.

Requests to Exercise Your Rights

RIGHT TO KNOW REQUEST - The CCPA, CPRA and VCDPA you have a right to request information about our collection, use, and disclosure of your personal information over the prior 12 months, and ask that we provide you with the following information, as well as a right to request that we correct any information that is inaccurate:

1. Categories of and specific pieces of personal information we have collected about you.
2. Categories of sources from which we collect personal information.
3. Purposes for collecting, using, or selling personal information.
4. Categories of third parties with which we share personal information.
5. Categories of personal information disclosed about you for a business purpose.
6. If applicable, categories of personal information sold about you and the categories of third parties to which the personal information was sold, by category or categories of personal information for each third party to which the personal information was sold.

To make a verifiable request for information about the personal information we have collected about you, please email us at privacy@nameblock.com or via regular mail to REQUESTS, GENERALLY - Please note, if you do not have a NameBlock account we will not have enough information about you to verify your Right to Know and Right to Delete requests, as we do not keep sufficient information necessary to reidentify and link you to a prior visit to the Site or Services where data may have been collected. As such, we will be unable to verify and honor your requests. You may make a verifiable request related to your personal information twice per 12-month period. We will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your rights.

REQUESTS MADE THROUGH AGENTS - You may designate, in writing or through a power of attorney, an authorized agent to make requests on your behalf to exercise your rights. Before accepting such a request from an agent, we will require the agent to provide proof you have authorized it to act on your behalf, and we may need you to verify your identity directly with us.

Sale of Personal Information and Discrimination

California and Virginia consumers have a right to opt-out of the sale of their personal information by a business and a right not to be discriminated against for exercising one of their California or Virginia privacy rights. NameBlock does not sell the personal information of California or Virginia consumers and does not discriminate in response to privacy rights requests.

For more information about what personal information is collected, how it is collected and the purposes of use, as well as whether NameBlock discloses that personal information and if so to whom it is disclosed, please see our Privacy Policy.
